

Indirect Practice

Jack Maguire

Passives Revision Homework

- omnes cives clamoribus hostium terrentur.
- hic liber saepe legitur.
- multae epistolae mihi a matre mittebantur.
- milites qui a rege arcessiti erant omnes postea effugerunt.
- ianua ab ancilla celeriter aperta est.
- vox regis numquam iterum audietur.
- equi in castra a servis ducebantur.
- multa pecunia huic servo data est.
- pueri domum redire iussi sunt.
- verba quae a liberto dicta erant ab ómnibus laudata sunt.

EX:

- senex a puella adiutus erat, sed postea iterum discessit.
- Translate into Latin: The very loyal slave has been freed by the master.

My Translation:

- All of the citizens are terrified by the shouts of the enemies.
- This book is often read.
- Many letters were sent to me by the mother.
- The soldiers who had been summoned by the king all escaped afterwards.
- The door was quickly been opened by the slave-girl.
- The voice of the king shall never again be heard.
- The horses were being lead into the camp by slaves.
- A lot of money was given to this slave.
- The boys have been ordered to return home.
- The words which had been spoken by the freedmen have been praised by all.

EX:

- The old man had been helped by the girl, but afterwards he left again.

- servus fidissimus a domino libertatus est